Dear Pastor Manning:

To answer the question that you asked in your television broadcast: today,

The reason that God has not killed you even though you have become a false prophet since Cain's household has overtaken you, is that judgment rarely falls immediately.

The Scripture clearly shows that judgment may be delayed for years, as it was for King Saul and King Ahab; and for Solomon, judgment did not fall until the next generation.

I never had the opportunity to deliver the message that the Lord gave me for you when I preached at Atlah World Missionary Church three and one-half years ago, Pastor Manning, so I will deliver it now:

The reason why your ministry did not grow in the same way that the ministries of men like Dr. Price, Dr. Dollar and Bishop Jake's grew, is that you are called to a higher calling than they are.

These men minister Pentecost, the Bride Company, but you are called to Minister Christ, the Bridegroom. In this hour, very few believers are prepared to ascend into the Bridegroom Company, so our numbers are much smaller than the crowds of Pentecost.

Do you remember Biology 1 in your freshman year of college, Pastor Manning? Do you remember that the class was so large that it was held in an auditorium? But what happened to the size of that class in Bio 2 and 3? The numbers were reduced to a fraction of the freshman class! Pentecost is Bio 1, Pastor Manning, and the Ministry of Christ is Bio 2, 3 and beyond.

You have an apostolic anointing, Pastor Manning, and you are, indeed, a prophet who has the guts to tell the the Black Christian Church what they need to hear. You have a lot of truth, but mixture is antichrist.

You are called to teach the Doctrine of Christ, Pastor Manning. That is why I was sent to you, to introduce you to the Doctrine of Christ, but you went off in your own direction, and now you are in trouble.

Your love and zeal for the Lord is obvious and exemplary, but your energy has been captured by a community of unclean spirits who are spiritually raping you and using you as a homosexual prostitute daily.

May the Lord grant you repentance, and deliver you, for the benefit of the world.

God bless you.

Sincerely in Christ,
